ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

DEWC 2025 is poised to be a groundbreaking conference scheduled to take place in Singapore from 20 June 2025 to 22 June 2025. This conference is dedicated to exploring insightful perspectives within the realms of Diabetes, Endocrinology, and associated metabolism. Intending to unite leading researchers, experts, and related healthcare professionals from the same field, the event aims to serve as a beacon for exchanging ideas and knowledge among peers showcasing novel findings and advancements in the field of Diabetes and endocrinology.

The conference agenda will feature a diverse range of engaging programs, encompassing both local and international captivating presentations that will stimulate discussions among esteemed professionals, fostering a deeper understanding of treatments and innovative approaches to address endocrine disorders and related underlying issues.

Participants can anticipate an exclusive opportunity to delve into groundbreaking research and innovative interventions through a variety of scientific interactive sessions, poster presentations, keynote speeches, and workshops. By facilitating such interactions, the conference endeavours to facilitate networking and collaboration among researchers and scientists, nurturing partnerships that pave the way for new avenues in future patient care.

We extend our warm welcome inviting great minds to participate and contribute toward making this conference a huge success. This event is poised to act as a catalyst for collaboration, innovation, and the exchange of ideas, thereby shaping the future landscape of healthcare within the domains of Diabetes and Endocrinology.
