ABOUT THE EVENT

Join Us for the Mental Health World Conference (MHWC 2026)

The Mental Health World Conference 2026 invites the global mental health community to gather in Dubai for a pivotal three-day event in 21-23 August, 2026, Dubai is focused on innovation, collaboration, and impact. This hybrid conference—both in-person and virtual—offers a unique opportunity to engage with mental health professionals, researchers, policymakers, educators, and advocates from around the world.

Mental health disorders are now recognized as one of the greatest health and social challenges of our era. Depression, anxiety, substance use, and related conditions affect millions, while stigma and limited access to care persist. MHWC 2026 addresses these urgent issues head-on, spotlighting global perspectives, cutting-edge research, and inclusive strategies to advance mental health care and awareness.

This year's conference theme, "Mental Health in a Changing World: Research, Response, and Resilience", reflects a commitment to moving beyond treatment toward prevention, equity, and empowerment. MHWC 2026 will feature:

- Keynotes by world-renowned experts
- Interactive panels and community dialogues
- Hands-on workshops and skill-building sessions
- Scientific research and innovation showcase
- Policy roundtables and global case studies

MHWC 2026 is more than a conference—it's a call to action. Whether you are working in psychiatry, psychology, public health, education, social services, or policy, your voice is essential in shaping the future of mental health.

Let's build a more resilient, inclusive, and compassionate world—together.
