ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

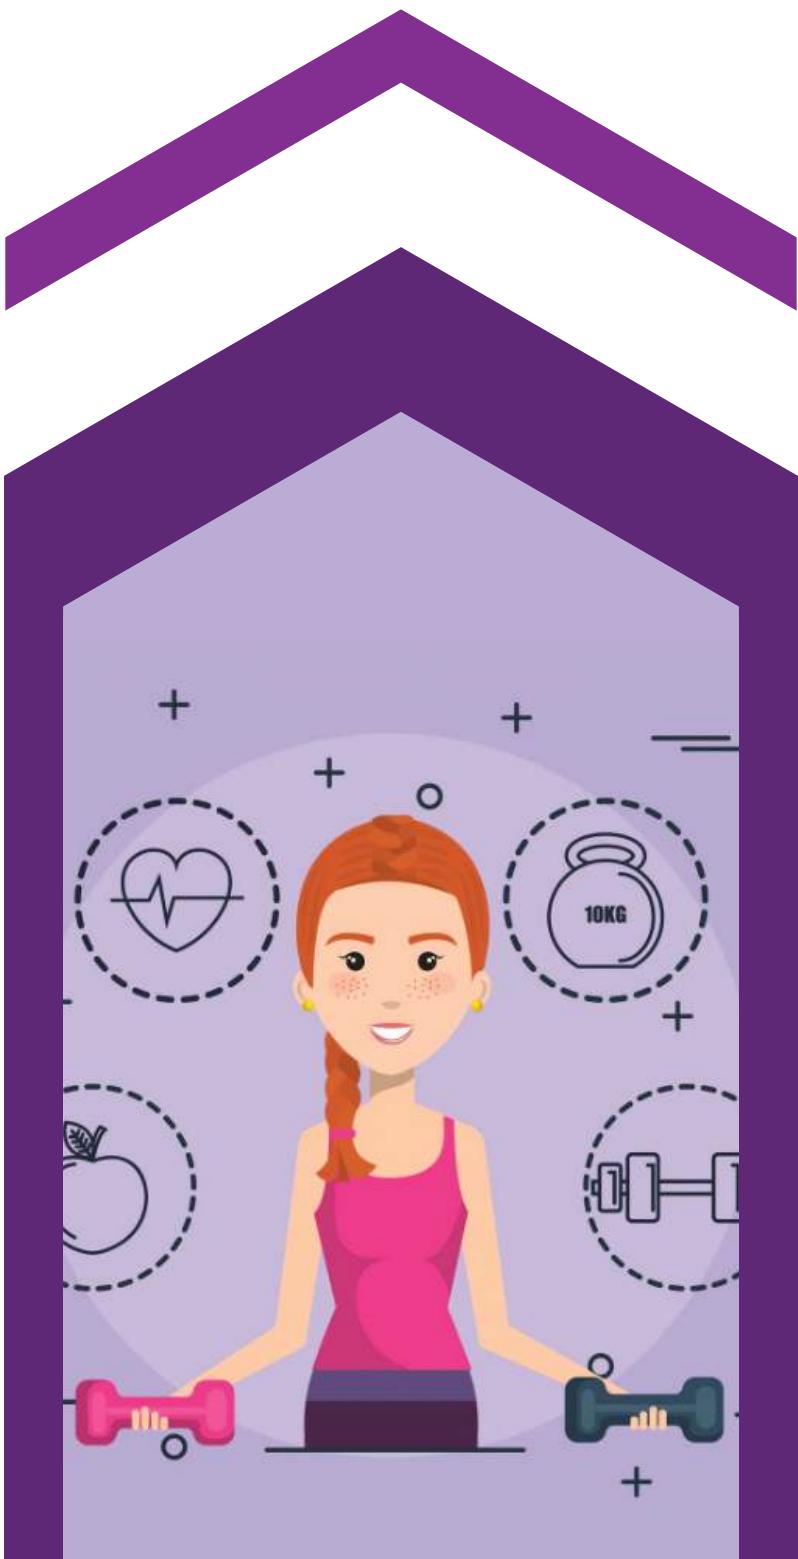

We are delighted to welcome all healthcare professionals, researchers, and advocates to the Women's Health World Conference (WHWC 2026), which will be held from 20 July 2026 to 22 July 2026 in Singapore. This dynamic event offers valuable opportunities for knowledge sharing and exploring the latest advancements in women's health, reproductive health, maternal care, and related sciences. The conference will provide a powerful platform for engaging in thought-provoking discussions and presentations with global leaders in women's health.

The conference aims to strengthen the action and impact of participants nationally, regionally, and internationally through a multidisciplinary program showcasing innovative interventions, best practices, and new strategies in women's health, midwifery, maternal and childcare, patient safety, and public health.

The program will feature invited plenary lectures, scientific sessions, and poster presentations highlighting cutting-edge research and practical approaches that advance women's health globally. Organized by a committee of renowned experts, WHWC 2026 invites you to join us and contribute to making this event a resounding success.
